What with conferences with Mayor John F. Hylan, a long visit by his former chief, Col. Bingham, a little fatherly ultation with the Police Inspector of the five boroughs and a host of miscellaneous matters, the best that Mr. Bugher could do in the matter of supplying deputies for his department was to secure holdover promises from three men

First Deputy Lawrence B. Dunham already had promised to hold over for a few days. To this was added the promises of former Deputy Leon Godley, now a Police Magistrata, and Fourth Deputy Bagar V. O'Daniel. Magistrate Godley, in the words of Mr. Bugher, "has consented to continue his work in Brooklyn, handling the great volume of routine work over there, just as he has been doing for several days." Deputy O'Daniel will remain for forty-eight hours. Magistrate Godley's consent was made possible by the fact that he has not been designated to sit as yet. The merit system, for instance, is one thing which the new Commissioner hopes to improve upon. Willing to Put It on Market After Being Enlightened on "Tests."

The price of at least one costly article the pinto bean, which is to make its debut here under the patronage of the Federal Food Administration. If the pinto takes, it may be passed along for the consideration of Boston folks.

The announcement of the threatened wholesale importation of the pinto bean, which as yet has no piace in New Tork's market quotations, was made yesterday afternoon by Arthur Williams, Federal Food Administrator for this city, in a talk with the heads of saveral retail grocers' associations.

Now, wouldn't t be possible for you grocers to take head beans and retail them to the pub-ic at, say, 10 cents a pound?" "Mac," directed the administrator,

Mr. Haslop quickly multiplied the 3,000 embers of his association by one caroad of pintos, garped, and replied:
"The chain stores or department stores could do it, but I don't think we could. We don't know how the public might take these beans." Somebody referred to the Brazilian beaus, which the Mayor's Food Supply

Committee induced the trade to intro grocers "to stand by the Food Administration and take the beans."

"I believe every one of you if yo were playing poker would take a chance." he pleaded. "Why not take a chance with the beans for the benefit of the public?"

Grocers to Cooperate.

The grocers, all being patriotic me even if they don't like the ing certain staple foodstuffs at prices suggested by the Federal Food Board, announced with some reluctance their willingness to cooperate with the Pood Administration in the campaign to popularize the new bean. Unless the signs of the time are all wrong the pinto la headed right direct for Mr. Williams did not go into details as to the present whereabouts of the "unlimited supply" of s cent beans (store price 10 cents) which the city can have. There are many secrets that cannot be divuiged these days when food speculators are sitting up nights thinking of ways to grab off foodstuffs and hoard then for advancing prices.

If the pinto bean is all that it is cracked up to be it will probably be a life saver to the hard pressed house.

You are entitled only to a fair and reasonable profit on your purchase price. No matter what the other fellow does, you ought to do what is right."

The grocer couldn't see that he was doing anything wrong. It was "just-good husiness," he said, but the Food Administrator declared his profit must be "a fair one," adding that the Food Administration will go the limit with wholesslers and retailers in insisting upon principle.
